In 2018, an estimated 4,000 attended SacTown Veg Fest, a captive audience especially receptive to your plant-based, vegan-friendly, or animal-friendly products or activities.

You or your business needn't be 100% plant based or vegan to participate, but STVF 2019 is where you can showcase your completely plant-based or vegan items or activities that you'd like to let the Sacramento-area community know about.

We look forward to hearing from you!
